

The Joy of Writing

with Ralph Fletcher

The landscape for writing instruction has changed in recent years. Many students are struggling in this new world. Our rush to embrace the standards has resulted in less choice and more academic writing.

In this workshop we'll look at how we can create a more joyful writing classroom, and bring back essential conditions where young writers can thrive and develop a self-image: I am a writer.

Workshop is best for teachers of Grades 2 – 8.
